

ENGSO YOUTH STRATEGY 2020-2023

ENGSO Youth strategy 2020-2023 contributes to implementation of ENGSO 2020-2023 strategy.

SLOGAN

Giving youth¹
a real say² in sport³

VISION

Establishing and nourishing strong alliances to empower youth's development through sport.

MISSION 2023

To serve as an overarching platform in creating opportunities within the European youth sport sector through advocacy, strategic actions and networking.

¹ ENGSO Youth defines youth as persons between the ages of 13 and 35.

² ENGSO Youth defines a real say as an equal opportunity in decision making that concerns youth within the grassroots sport sector.

³ ENGSO Youth defines sport through the following characteristics:

- Physical activity- it involves movements that raise the heart rate;
- Competition- it has a competitive element, although participants might not actually take part in competition themselves;
- Institutionalisation- it is organised by someone (such as a coach, committee, or organisation), as a base (such as a club or venue), and has some desired outcome (such as health, competitive success, or social inclusion).

CORE VALUES

We are driven by the following principles:

- Integrity, transparency, equality, inclusion.

We operate by relying on advocacy, projects, policy and networking, with special focus on:

1. Sustainable development in and through sport;
2. Inclusion in and through sport;
3. Health enhancing physical activity;
4. Education and employability in and through sport;
5. Sports diplomacy;
6. Internal development and nourishing cooperation with ENGSO and its organisational bodies;
